

O where shall peace be found

Christopher Idle
Sue Gilmurray

SPES PACIS 6 7 6 7 6 6 6 6

O where shall peace be found, and where an end to The moun - tain of the Lord, shall rise a - bove all We long to see the day when love com - pletes that

F Am Bb

slaugh - ter, all lands be ho - ly ground, all peo - ples free from o - thers; in Christ we are re - stored as neigh - bours, sis - ters, vi - sion, but God who hears us pray de - mands our clear de -

C F Am Bb

mur - der? Where wea - pons are un - made the pro - phet's word comes bro - thers: our grey ma - chines of death are turned to no - bler ci - sion: Lord give us ears to hear, and wills to heed, your

C A7 Dm C7

true and none shall be a - fraid when God makes all - things use when o - ver all the earth his king - dom is let voice; to yield no more to fear, to make your path our

F F7 Bb Bb/C

new.
loose.
choice.

F C7 F